

GMM Summer Summit June 18, 2013

Working Agenda

8:30a – 8:50a	Welcome and Introduction of GRAD Talks Montana State Superintendent Denise Juneau		Location: MSU Ballroom A
8:50a – 10:30a	GRAD Talks Montana A core strategy of Graduation Matters Montana is to support locally designed, locally implemented strategies based on what works in Montana. Through a TED Talks-esque presentation, we will highlight five effective strategies from Graduation Matters communities: incorporating student voice (Hardin); promoting college and career readiness (Anaconda); creating a culture of respect (Browning); engaging community leadership (Great Falls); and launching peer-to-peer tutoring (Miles City).
15 minute	Break
10:45a – 11:30a	GRAD Talks Roundtable Discussions Join fellow GMM Summer Summit participants in a discussion and reflection on the GRAD Talks presentations and share your questions, insights and inspirations.
11:30a – 11:35a	Morning Session Closing State Superintendent Denise Juneau
25 minute	Break
Noon	Afternoon Session Opening The afternoon session is for current GMM initiatives only.		Location: MSU Ballroom D
	Luncheon Keynote Tanya Tucker, Senior Vice President, America’s Promise Alliance Introduction by: Mike Halligan, Executive Director Dennis & Phyllis Washington Foundation
1:00p – 2:30p	Learning from Each Other This section will be guided by the Mid-Year Report template and the findings of the 2013 GMM Progress Report. GMM Teams will have time to discuss current strategies, challenges and plans for future work.
15 minute	Break
2:45p – 3:45p	Know Your Data: Tools You Can Use “Know your data” is a critical step of local GMM work. This session provides GMM Teams with tools to help you track your progress and make strategic decisions about your community efforts. We will demonstrate how you can use Montana’s new education data system (GEMS), provide information about OPI’s pilot Early Warning System, and seek your input on proposed “Indicators of Success” that OPI is developing in concert with Education Northwest.
3:45p – 4:00p	Closing and Evaluation State Superintendent Denise Juneau		